On March 23 Jack R. Williams, supervisory Park Ranger at the North Entrance, fell and sustained injuries to his heel. He was hospitalized a few days and now on duty with his foot in a cast.

Judith J. Manning, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Manning, won national recognition for skill, leadership and reputable achievement by selection for the 1961 edition of Who's Who in Baton Twirling.

Miss Marjorie Mattson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Mattson, a junior home economics major, was elected president of Pi Beta Phi sorority at Montana State College, Bozeman.

Theodore Kocher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Kocher, a junior electrical engineering major, was elected president of the Men's Co-Op at Montana State College.

Cooperative Activities

Publicity. On each Thursday, the Yellowstone Weekly News was issued to keep employees, concessioners and others currently informed of Park happenings.

One press release was issued, March 14, on snow plowing operations in the outer Park.

Religious and Chapel Use. The Chapel was used every Sunday for the regular Sunday school and Protestant church services.

Museum Activities. The museum records for Big Hole Battlefield are complete with the exception of new items, pertaining particularly to the use of the mountain howitzer.

Two weeks were spent on the recataloging the gun collection of the Park.

Research and Observation. Two requests for collecting permits were issued during March. One to Mr. John B. Droste of Indiana University for permission to collect and study mud samples from the principle mud pot areas of the Park. A permit was granted Dr. Glenn B. Wiggins of the Royal Ontario Museum to study aquatic invertebrates of the Yellowstone area.

Park Naturalist (Geologist) George D. Marler spent most of his time working on a manuscript for the U. S. Geological Survey, and in preparing the paper entitled "Why Are Geysers Found in Yellowstone Park?"

On March 29, Valentine Geyser was observed in an eruption cycle for the first time during 1960 and 1961.

In the Lower Basin, Clepsydra was still strongly active.

In the Upper Geyser Basin, Sapphire showed evidence of a period of increased activity since December.

In the Firehole Lake area, Mr. Marler observed an eruption of an unnamed spring at the south base of Little Cub. This was the first observation of geyser activity in this spring.

History. Park Historian Haines assisted Howard Chapman with preparation of PCP data for Big Hole Battlefield National Monument, completed notes on the Mammoth Hot Springs Prospectus in relation to history and archeology, and edited Superintendent Hemneberger's historical manuscript on the early day scouts of Yellowstone.

Geological Surveys. Rangers assisted U. S. Geological Survey personnel in making the water survey in the Lamar and Madison rivers.

Soil Conservation. Park personnel took readings of all snow courses in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service and all computed snow course readings were mailed to the Weather Bureau in Cheyenne.

Concessioners. The Annual Financial Report for 1960 for Haynes Inc. was received March 16, was pre-audited and Summary prepared during the month.

The Superintendent and members of his staff conferred with officials of the Yellowstone Park Company at various times throughout the month to discuss plans for the 1961 season. Of particular importance were discussion of improved transportation service throughout the Park, boat rentals and related services on Yellowstone Lake and general exchange of views on Yellowstone Park Company operations, facilities and services within the Park. The talks were attended by Mr. Bittinger, the new General Manager of the Company and members of his staff representing new management of Company operations.

Maintenance. Park General snow crews started opening the roads in the South District on March 21. West Thumb and the Lake Utility area were reached on March 21. The road to Lake was opened on March 24 to official travel.

Ranger Activities. Several patrol trips were made into the Snake River Sub-District during the month. One ski patrol was made to Heart Lake on the 16 and 17. During this trip rangers observed a grizzly sow giving chase to a moose.

Rangers on patrols observed considerable evidence of elk, moose, grizzly bear, otter, weasel, squirrel, marten and coyote.

Law Enforcement. There were no cases taken before the U. S. Commissioner this month. One case is now pending the return of the Commissioner from annual leave.

One criminal offense was reported during the month--the breaking and entering at the East Entrance on March 16.

Chief Park Ranger Murdock and Law Enforcement Officer [illegible] attended a meeting of cooperating law enforcement agencies in Livingston, Montana on March 1[illegible]. The Sheriff's offices for Park and Gallatin Counties, the Montana Highway Patrol and the Livingston Police were represented. This conference was for the purpose of discussing road blocks and the requirements for cooperative action and advanced planning in order to make this system operational.

White Pine Blister Rust Control. Park Forester Myers and Forestry Aid Reeves met in Missoula, Montana March 6 to 10 with Forester John C. Gynn, of the Division of State and Private Forestry and others to review the National Park Service Region Two white pine blister rust control program for 1[illegible].

Wildlife and Fish Cultural Activities. BISON. As many as [illegible] bison were observed in the Lower Geyser Basin.

ELK. The census of the northern Yellowstone elk herd was completed on March 16. Total number of elk actually counted was 8,1[illegible]. Two helicopters were used--the small Hiller B-2 and the Bell Chopper G47-3. This was a very successful animal count.

Direct elk reduction ended March 10. The elk reduction employment program ended March 31. Total reduction by:

Direct Control	(inside Park)	1,287
Live trapped	(inside Park)	172
Hunter kill	(outside Park)	25
